AG denies nod to contempt case against Andhra CM

New Delhi : Attorney KK Venugopal has General refused grant consent to initiating contempt for proceedings against Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy over his letter to Chief Justice of India (CJI) making wild allegations against the second most senior judge of the Supreme Court, Justice NV Ramana although he agreed that the duos conduct was "contumacious" and that the timing was "suspect". The demand to initiate contempt came from BJP leader and lawyer Ashwini Kumar Upadhyay who wanted action against Reddy and his Principal Advisor Ajeya Kallam. Upadhyay in his letter to Venugopal, referred to the contents of a letter written by Reddy to CJI SA Bobde on October 6, in which he accused Justice Ramana of working against his government.

Upadhyay mentioned that the Andhra Pradesh CM is an accused in at least 31 cases concerning offences under the Prevention of Corruption Act and Prevention of Money Laundering Act pending before the special court in Telangana. The contents of the letter were released to the media by Kallam in a press conference on October 10.

The government's chief law officer's decision was driven by the fact that the matter is

Polling turnout begins to rise in Marwahi assembly bypoll in Chhattisgarh

Raipur : The bypoll for the Marwahi assembly bypoll in Chhattisgarh recorded 21.52% polling till 11 am, an official said Tuesday. Polling is being held amid the tight security and Covid-19 already before the Chief Justice India. Venugopal said: of "Prima facie, the conduct of the said persons is contumacious. However, what has to be noted is, that the entire case of contempt arises out of the letter dated October 6 written by the CM directly to the CJI and the subsequent press conference held by Sh Kallam. The CJI is therefore seized of the matter... it would not be appropriate for me to deal with the matter."

Upadhyay in his letter addressed to AG had said, "the timing of the letter, the contents of the same, the rush to spill it to the public while the matter was pending with the Chief Justice and the separate Statement read out by Sh Kallam make it manifestly clear that this was done to interfere with the course of justice and lower the authority of the Court." He referred to a PIL filed by him pending with the bench headed by Justice Ramana where orders were recently passed to fast-track criminal trials against all sitting and former legislators (MPs and "I am of the opinion that the timing itself of the letter, as well as it being placed in the public domain through a press conference could certainly protocol. Officials said that all the protocols of Covid-19 were in place in all 286 booths of the constituency and Covid-19-infected voters can cast their votes in the last one hour of polling. Marwahi is a reserved seat for scheduled tribes. There is a direct fight between Congress and the BJP in the bypoll that was necessitated after Janata Congress Chhattisgarh (J) MLA and former chief minister Ajit Jogi passed away in May this year. The constituency has been the bastion of Jogi for last two decades but this is the first time in last 20 years when the Jogis are not in the fray because Amit Jogi's nomination was rejected. Jogi's nomination was rejected following a high-power committee's report which found that he was not a tribal. The nomination papers of Jogi's wife Richa Jogi, who had filed nomination for the same seat, were also cancelled by the district collector on the same ground A total of 1,91,004 voters, comprising 93,725 males, 97,265 females and four from the third gender, are eligible to vote in the constituency. As many as 286 polling stations have been set up, of which 126 have been categorised as sensitive. Around 1,400 security personnel have been deployed for the bypoll, results of which will be announced on November 10. The main fight is between Congress nominee K K Dhruw, a former medical officer from the area, and BJP's Gambheer Singh, a former professor at the Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Medical College, Raipur.
